

We're Prepared Dovetail COVID-19 Update

As the Coronavirus (COVID-19) continues to impact the United States, Dovetail has taken a proactive approach. With the health and safety of both our employees and partners in mind, we are monitoring COVID-19 closely and have implemented the following procedures to ensure the safety of our employees and prevent any interruption to business:

- all employees have been asked to work remotely for at least two weeks or until the risk is minimized
- our teams are equipped with necessary resources to continue business as usual and minimize interruption and delays
- any non-essential travel and conferences have been cancelled for the next few months

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact us at info@dovetailinsurance.com or (803) 255-8891.

Wishing you and your loved ones safety and peace during these uncertain times. We will continue to provide updates as they develop.
